

Cub Scout Den Leader

Purpose of Cub Scouting –

Character development, spiritual growth, good citizenship, sportsmanship and fitness, family understanding, respectful relations, personal achievement, friendly service, fun and adventure, and preparation for Boy Scouting.

Guidelines of this position –

- Register with the Boy Scouts of America as an adult leader
- Wear a full Cub Scout leader uniform with appropriate insignia
- Encourage Cubs to wear appropriate uniform
- Get to know all Wolf and/or Bear Cub Scouts and their families - encourage involvement
- Integrate the religion award requirements into den efforts
- Supervise a successful advancement program
- Implement the outlined Cub Scout program
- Coordinate den participation at monthly pack meeting
- Maintain standards of the BSA
- Ensure two-deep leadership at all activities
- Work closely with Cubmaster
- Keep it simple, make it fun!!

Meetings to hold –

Weekly den meeting

Meetings to attend –

- Monthly pack leaders planning meeting
- Monthly pack meeting
- Monthly District Roundtable

Trainings to receive –

- Read Cub Scout leader handbook and related printed materials
- Complete online Cub Scout Fast Start and Youth Protection Training (www.gslc-bsa.org)
- Attend Cub Scout Basic Training
- Participate in other training opportunities – Cub Scout Pow Wow, Wood Badge, etc

Expectations –

- Attend specified leadership meetings
- Regularly report on your position and share status on den achievement and efforts
- Model excellence through your actions and use example to set the standard for others

